2009 Manager/Coach Application

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone #'s: _____

Email Address: _____

NOTE: Applicant must be a member of the League. See the secretary or any League officer to obtain a membership application form.

Applicant is formally submitting this application for the position of (circle one) Manager/Coach in the Daniel S. Wasson/Milford Babe Ruth Baseball & Softball League, Inc. of Milford, Connecticut. Applicant understands that his selection will require his commitment to discharge the duties of Manager or Coach in accordance with the rules of Babe Ruth League Baseball, Inc. and the Daniel S. Wasson/Milford Babe Ruth Baseball & Softball League's Constitution & By Laws.

Before completing the reverse side of this form, the applicant is advised that being a manager or coach in the Daniel S. Wasson Baseball League requires more than just showing up at games and occupying space in the team dugout or coaching box. Among the requirements are:

- Willingness to act as an appropriate role model to our youth, which means being properly attired, not smoking in the dugout area or on the playing field, not arguing with umpires, not swearing or using profane language, etc.
- Willingness to attend League meetings and League sponsored clinics.
- Willingness to help with field maintenance and/or umpiring games.
- Willingness to serve on committees, assist with fund raising events, etc.
- Willingness to be certified and Trained as Babe Ruth National Office Requires
- Attendance and participation in any League ceremonies.

Since this application will be reviewed by the League's Executive Board, it is important that the applicant complete the reverse side of this form. Since there are frequently more applicants for coaching positions than there are managerial vacancies, the Executive Board decisions as to who gets to become a manager will be determined by the applicant's qualifications and experience. Therefore, the applicant should be as thorough as possible in completing this form.
